

Agencies

Academic Institutions

Industry & Trade Organisations

International Organisations

Over the years, SLA signed Memoranda of Understanding with various local and overseas organizations...

MOU with / between	Purpose / Scope of Collaboration	Date Signed
WSH Council	To appoint SLA as a Risk Management Assistance Fund (RMAF) Agent	25 May 2011
UZT	To cooperate and undertake activities with mutual benefits to enhance the interests of both organizations and their members.	20 Mar 2010
S.P. Jain Center of Management	To offer 20 scholarship for staff of SLA member-companies to Global MBA & Executive MBA	01 Feb 2010
CAAS, IDA, IATA, SAAA, SNSC	To collaborate in promoting the e-freight@Singapore programme in order to enhance Singapore as a leading global air cargo and logistics hub	29 Jan 2010
SPRING Singapore TLI-AP	To embark on a study to identify trends and opportunities to strengthen Singapore's transshipment business	30 Oct 2009
NTUC LearningHub	To prepare, launch and operate public vocational training and continuous education services for the general public and corporate clients.	06 May 2009
UniSIM	To collaborate in developing the Bachelor of Science in Logistics and Supply Chain Management Programme.	28 Oct 2008
TILSCA	To cooperate and undertake activities with mutual benefits to enhance the interests of both organizations and their members.	27 Oct 2006
Temasek Polytechnic	To establish a partnership in education and mutual co-operation focusing on creation and training of logistics professionals in Singapore	07 Oct 2005

Logistics
Association of Australia (LAA)
LAA - Victoria
LAA - Queensland

To cooperate and undertake activities with mutual benefits to enhance the interests of the 3 organizations and their members.

01 Dec
2004

NAFL, CIFFA

To cooperate and undertake activities with mutual benefits to enhance the interests of the 3 organizations and their members.

26 Jan
2004

Institute of Technical Education (ITE)

To promote relevant training courses and facilitate industry attachments for ITE students.

18 Feb
2003

Mongolian Logistics
Association
(MLA)

To cooperate and undertake activities with mutual benefits to enhance the interests of both organizations and their members.

01 Jun
2003